

"Fluff and Beebee" highlights the importance of bees in our environment and demonstrates that kids should not be afraid of them! One day a dog named Fluff is smelling flowers in the garden. Unexpectedly he encounters a honey bee named Beebee. At first Fluff is nervous, then Beebee ensures him that she is friendly and just doing her job. The two connect because they love to smell flowers! Fluff and Beebee journey to Beebee's hive so Fluff can get up close and personal with the bees! Beebee enlightens Fluff with facts about bees, beehives, and the queen bee. Along the way the two become unlikely friends and children are informed about the significance of bees in our world.
